

Helena Myllyharju,

Advisor, Business Finland, has MSc in biochemistry and PhD in molecular medicine.

She has more than ten years of experience in innovation funding for companies and research organizations in the health & wellbeing sector and prior to that in the production, product and analytical development in pharmaceutical industry.